1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Starting point

The Rules and Regulations document is a complement to the UPF Lund's Statutes and serves to further describe and regulate the associations' different bodies and positions of trust. In case of conflict, the statutes have precedence. The Annual Meeting owns the Rules and Regulations. A change requires one (1) Annual Meeting decision.

1.2 Language

The Association of Foreign Affairs Lund (UPF Lund) attaches great importance to a diverse participation and the principle of all students being able to represent themselves. Therefore, the working language at all meetings within the association shall be in English. Documents for all meetings shall be written in English.

1.3 Rules of Procedure

The Rules of procedure regulates managerial and decision-making matters. The Rules of procedure gives an overview of the most important rules UPF simulations should follow. The Rules of procedure can be found in a separate procedural document on the website. The Board owns the Rules of procedure. A change made to the procedural document requires one (1) decision by the Board.

1.4 The Annual Meetings

The Annual Meetings consist of the Annual Election Meeting and the Annual Meeting. The Annual Meetings are the highest decision-making body of UPF Lund. The Annual Meetings owns the Statutes and Rules and Regulations. The Annual Election Meeting elects people to the internal positions of the Association and handles motions submitted to the meeting. The Annual Meeting takes decisions about the various documents that will regulate the upcoming fiscal year. This can for example include the Operational Plan and the Operational Budget.

2. INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE BOARD

The Board is appointed by the Annual Election Meeting and consists of the Presidium and the Heads of each respective committee, with exception to the Nominating Committee. The Board assumes their roles on the 1st of July for a mandate period of one (1) year (until June 30th). The Board meets regularly and works closely with the activities of the Association. The Board acts as the highest decision-making organ for the Association between the Annual Meetings and handles questions that are closer to regular operations, such as by-elections, takes operational decisions and carries out activities on the behalf of the Association.
